

I.C.E. RECERTIFICATION FEE POLICY

CIMS ISSA Certification Expert (I.C.E.) certification is valid for a period of two years. To achieve re-certification, an ISSA Certification Expert is required to accumulate a total of 30 professional credits during the two-year re-certification cycle and pay a re-certification fee consistent with the chart below. Please note that the full re-certification fee must accompany a re-certification application when it is submitted to ISSA.

The applicable re-certification fee is based on the number of I.C.E. certified professionals employed by or otherwise affiliated with an organization.* In calculating the number of individuals employed by or otherwise affiliated with an organization for the purposes of this policy, only those individuals who are currently certified shall be considered.

Number of I.C.E. Certified Professionals	Fee
1	$595
2-5	$495
6-10	$395
11+	$345

* For purposes of the I.C.E. re-certification fee payment policy, an “organization” is defined as a for-profit entity that is involved in the sale and/ or distribution of cleaning products, whose primary business is the delivery of cleaning services, or who is the end customer of cleaning services. This includes a cleaning industry manufacturer, manufacturer’s representative organization, distributor, building service contractor, in-house cleaning organization, or end customer organization. It does not include a not-for-profit trade or professional association.

This policy is effective as of June 25, 2009.
